Mike,

Please find attached the response of La Mirada Products Co., Inc. (La Mirada) to the USEPA's CERCLA 104(e) Request for Information related to the above-referenced site. Also attached is a Document Production Index. Hard copies of both documents, along with a flash drive containing responsive documents from La Mirada, are being sent to your attention today. As noted in La Mirada's response letter, we will also be producing numerous financial records responsive to USEPA's 104(e) Request for Information. However, because these documents contain Confidential Business Information, we will be submitting such documents under separate cover later this week and in accordance with USEPA requirements for substantiating CBI claims.

Should you have any questions or like to discuss La Mirada's response letter and/or documentation, please contact me at your convenience. Thanks.
